

EcoBalance 2014 Sponsorship Opportunities

The EcoBalance 2014 Sponsorship is open to new patrons and collaborators!

EcoBalance 2014, the 11th International Conference on EcoBalance, will be held in Tsukuba, Japan, from 27 to 30 October 2014. A wide range of participants, including experts from various industries, universities, government research institutes, and NGOs, will present their research results, thereby helping us accomplish our aim of “Creating Benefit through Life Cycle Thinking.”

Through sponsorship of the Conference, your company will be promoted to more than 300 international participants as well as visitors to our website. Multiple sponsorship levels are available. We encourage all interested organizations to take advantage of this unique opportunity and participate in EcoBalance 2014 as a sponsor and/or exhibitor.
